Junior Scientists Excel in Competition

The annual M.H.S. Science Fair was held March 18th and 19th.

Starting early in January, many students organized their projects and began work.

Eleven students had entries in the Science Fair. Out of the eleven participants, seven received superior ratings. Students who obtained a superior rating were able to attend the District Science Fair held in Ashland on April 5. Those who received a superior there were eligible to go to the State Fair in Columbus, on April 12. Those who received superior ratings were: George Weber, Mike Blake, Kathy Sites, Debbie Wilson, George Paul, Margie Bennett, and Jim Henry.

A. Chigit, Kathy Sites' pet rat, proves beyond a shadow of a doubt that rats can reason. B. Last minute preparations are made by Debbie Wilson as she prepares her project for judging. C. Planaria prove to be a fascinating subject as displayed in Margie Bennett's project. D. The Fibonnaci Number System, displayed by Mike Blake, is intricately explained to John Morgan. E. Answers to Greg Catlett's questions are provided by Jim Henry as he explains his project on Planaria.

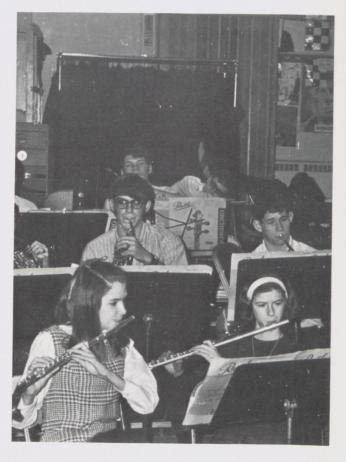

Orchestra Works for Symphonic Perfection

The Orchestra provided excellent accompaniment for many school functions. These included the Class Play, Varsity Varieties, and The Fine Arts Festival. Also it participated in the annual Christmas and Spring Concert. The String Ensemble played for many banquets and meetings. Mr. Hall and Mr. Leyerle, directors, spent many hours organizing and conducting this fine group of musicians.

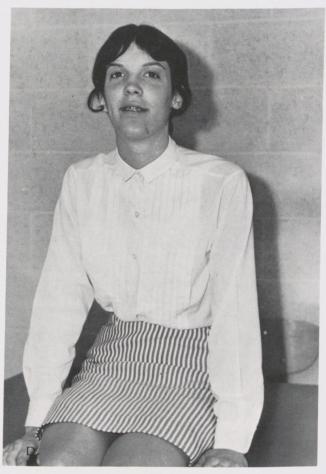

Last years officers were: Steve Huber, Vice President; Jim Henry, Secretary; Larry Williams, Treasurer; and Steve Scherff, President.

A. Flute and Horn players practice their parts. B. Concentration is essential for a good violinist.

MHS Delegates Represent School at Boys' and Girls' State

Girls' State delegate Vicki Schwab was chosen to attend Capital University in Columbus to learn about parliamentary procedures.

Boy's State delegates were Larry Williams, who acted as bailiff and fire chief; Steve Huber, senator; and Doug Miester, chief counsel to attorney general. Boys' State, which was held at Ohio University gave the boys an opportunity to view and participate in governmental legislation and procedures at the state level.

C. Boys' State delegates are Larry Williams, Steve Huber, and Doug Meister. D. Girls' State delegate is Vicki Schwab.

Students of M.H.S. Display Vocal Talents

Under the leadership of Mr. Turley, the M.H.S. Concert Choir performed many programs throughout the year.

The choir was composed of eighty-six members. This years choir officers were Stan Holloway, President; Charles McCoy, Vice-President; Pam Lewis, Secretary; and Arin Tatgenhorst, Treasurer. Each member of the choir sold calendars and candles to make enough money to go to choir contests.

Other groups that made outstanding performances this year were the Crescents (All Girl Chorus), the Boys' Ensemble, and the Boys' and Girls' Mixed Chorus.

A. Choir director, Mr. Turley, pleads for a fuller sound from the choir during a rehearsal. B. The Crescents sing of a "White Christmas" during the annual Christmas program. C. Joyous masculine voices make up the M.H.S. Boys' Ensemble.

"Two points!" Reserve cheerleader, Sallie Dill, urges the team on to victory. C. After Madison scores a touchdown, Darcy Chiverton and Kazy Meredith cry, "We can't lose!" D. "... 5,4,3,2,1!" Cheerleader Jackie Jones prepares to do a victory jump as time runs out on the clock E. "Victory tonight!" shout reserve cheerleaders Sallie Dill, Eileen Murphy, Kim Davis, and Vickie Hunt.

Spirit at M.H.S. Is Shown by Various Means

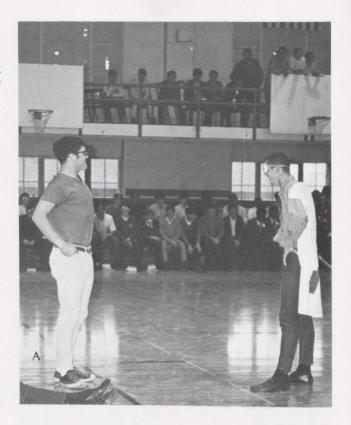

Pep assemblies played a vital role in sparking our Tyger teams on to victory.

To add humor to the assemblies the reserve cheer-leaders and sophomore Pep Club Executive Committee members were initiated and gave skits.

The traditional Massillon player bonfire was a grand event that took place last fall.

"M" Section was headed by Senior Captain, Shirley Starnes; Junior Captain, Sharon Hallabrin; Secretary, Mary Hunter; and Treasurer, Louise Dworski. The section consisted of 63 girls in red and white outfits forming an "M".

The ever-faithful H.R.D. Section slambanged the season with more spirit than ever. Mike Sands and Gordy Brollier led the H.R.D. in the saying of many cheers this year.

A. Fearless Tyger, Stan Holloway, prepares to defeat a stubborn Sandusky Blue Streak, Tom Long. B. After being honored by Pep Club Executive members, Mrs. Evilsizor lifts the lid of the spirit jug. C. "Gotta win, gotta win!" think Fred Stern and Mindy Cockley as they race across the finish line.

A. "Tygers go!" After yelling for our mighty Tygers the M-section takes its place. B. "Charge!" Fellow H.R.D. members mob Ted Heldenbrand after he cheers for Bucyrus. C. "Go-Fight-Win!" M-section members urge the team to victory.

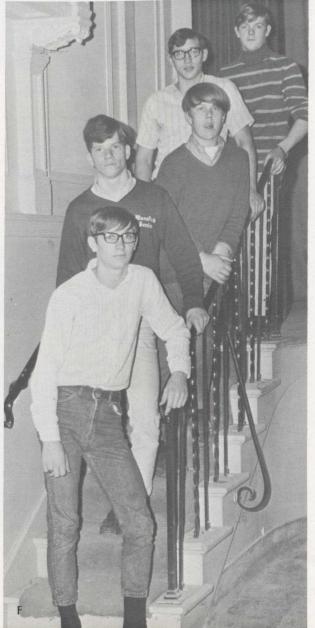

Students Assist Office Personnel

Throughout the past year many students donated their time and efforts to assist the secretarial staff and librarians at Senior High. The duties of these student aids were to type, deliver passes, and run errands.

The stage crew also helped to arrange scenery and take care of lighting for different school activities which included Varsity Varieties, Senior Class Play, and school assemblies.

Manhigan Staff Puts New Look in Yearbook

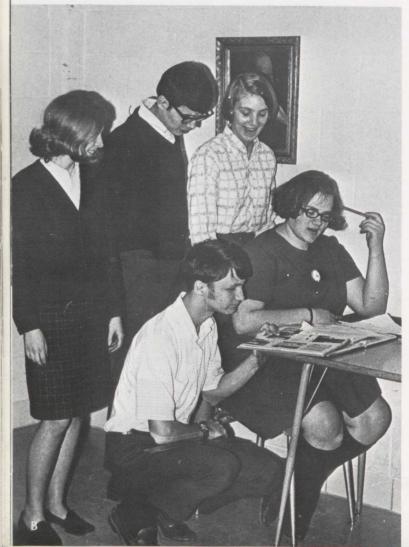

This year there were many changes in the Manhigan. The book was completely redone.

One of the changes was summer delivery. This change enabled the Manhigan staff to include pictures of the Senior Prom, Graduation, and Commencement for the first time. Also, spring sports were completely covered along with other year end activities. The staff turned to three column layouts, a new innovation in yearbook design.

Leading the staff this year were Doug Meister, Editor-in-Chief; Debbie Wilson and Pat Stoughton, Assistant Editors. Mr. Gross was the staff advisor. The yearbook could not get along without the help of the typist, Vivian Bottomley and the photographers, Tim Rohn and Roger Gorrell.

The business staff was advised by Mr. Martin, who contributed his time willingly.

A. Senior and Underclassmen staffs discuss whether or not to panel pictures. B. Which one? Activities staff members decide which layout to use. C. Typist and Artists talk over layout plans with the Faculty staff. D. Editor-in-chief, Doug Meister, and assistant-editors, Pat Stoughton and Debbie Wilson are helped in planning this year's Manhigan by advisor, Mr. David Gross. E. Administration Offers M.H.S. Prosperous Future

The Board of Education and the principals combined their efforts to make the 1968-69 school year an active one. Mr. Preston was elected president of the Board for the third year. Dr. Brown was re-elected vice-president, with Mrs. Forrest serving as Clerk-Treasurer.

The principals were the main leaders and organizers of the school's activities. Mr. Plough, the head principal, had a sincere interest in all school activities. Mr. Pierson, the assistant principal, worked with Mr. Plough to promote a controlled social atmosphere among the students. Mr. Coppersmith gave special attention to students who had attendance problems.

A. Board of Education members are: FRONT ROW: Mrs. Forrest, Mr. Preston, Mr. Hall, Dr. Brown; BACK ROW: Dr. Dees, Mr. Murray B. As Business Manager and Assistant Superintendent, Mr. Robinson does much paper work. C. The telephone proves to be a vital part of the daily schedule of Mr. Glass, Superintendent of Schools.

Perfection Is Promoted in English Classes

The aim of every English teacher was to help each student in writing and speaking. This was done through reading, viewing, and listening to the information available to them through spoken and written English.

This year the juniors participated in the National Council of Teachers of English writing contest, leading to an award of a four year college scholarship.

A. Sophomore students study while Mrs. Gardner checks English assignments. B. American Literature requires periods of contemplation for Mrs. McClellan. C. Mr. Pugh finds that it's not always easy to make constructive criticism of advanced composition papers.

Staff Expands Science Curriculum

In keeping up with the advancement of science, this department added two semester courses to its curriculum. They were astronomy and geology.

Enthusiasm and interest were generated in all the various classes. Numerous field trips and lab exercises developed a useful understanding of applied and experimental science.

A. A model of a frog's brain aids Mr. Poffenbaugh in explaining the function of the optic lobes. B. "You've got to be kidding!" is Mrs. Harris' only thought concerning Dave Busler's experiment. C. The growth of foreign policy in American History isn't as simple for Mr. Beal as he would make it seem.

Business Exposes Students to Economics

The Business Education Department offered students the opportunity to gain skills and knowledge necessary for office occupations. The Department had programs for qualified students as stenographers and clerk-typists. Also, selected seniors were given a workstudy program in Cooperative Office Education. Those who were selected were given jobs in offices doing typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand.

Class of 1969 Completes Successful Career

Senior Executive Committee: ROW 1: Long, Smith, Wright, Schwab, Mrs. Ryckman, Mr. Pugh and Mr. Gibson; ROW 2: Jones, Moga, Lacey, Claypool, Fraley, and Farris; ROW 3: Weisenburger, Wilson, Herrick, Schmunk, Hood, Fuqua, McCruter; ROW 4: Yirga, Bennett, Fredericks, Bookwalter, Henry, and Vaughn; ROW 5: Nixon, Tatgenhorst, Edmiston, Roth, Goettl, and Elkins; ROW 6: Simpson, Simms, Meister, Imler, Howman and Riggleman.

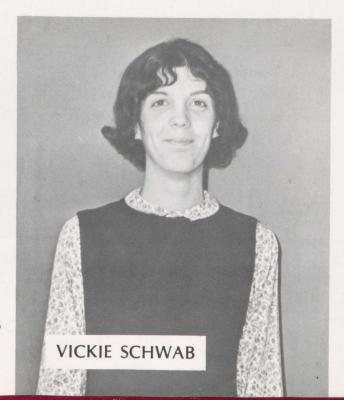

Facing a new and completely different life, students from three different Junior Highs came together at Senior High for the first time in September of 1966. In December, they selected class officers. Chosen as leaders that year were Mark Smith, President; Jim Imler, Vice President; Vickie Schwab,

Secretary; and Doug Meister, Treasurer.

The newly formed class set up a candy sale in the spring for the first project. Next the class selected class rings. They concluded the first year at M.H.S. with a Sophomore dance. As they entered the junior year, the class activities consisted of Homecoming, collecting of Class dues, ordering of class rings, and a candy sale. Junior elections were held in October. Mark Smith and Vickie Schwab were reelected but a new Vice-President, Sam Riggleman, and a new Treasurer, Tom Long, were elected. In the May elections for Senior Class officers, Ronny Wright became the new Vice-President, while all other officers retained their positions. They ended a good year with a pool party held at North Lake.

September 1969 marked the beginning of a memorable Senior year. The class sponsored a dance after the first football game. After long practices the Senior Class was proud of "Time is Running Out", a very successful Varsity Varieties. A beautiful production of "Best Foot Forward" was the result of long hours of practice by members of the Senior Class. June brought the Senior Class Prom, Class Day, Baccalaureate, and the long-awaited Commencement.

Three years of enjoyable, hard, and often rough work united hundreds of teenagers into the greatest class to ever come from M.H.S.

Junior Class Has an Active Year

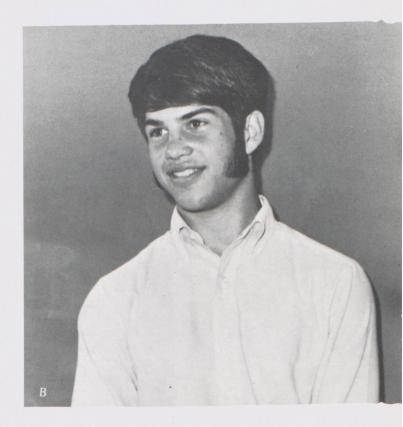

Elections held in the fall brought about the Junior Class officers. They were Greg Smith, President; Chip Gross, Vice-President; Amy Robinson, Secretary; and Kristy Hardy, Treasurer.

The advisors also donated a great amount of time and effort to the Junior Class. They were Mrs. Laura Evilsizor, Mr. James Goode, and Mr. Robert Whitaker.

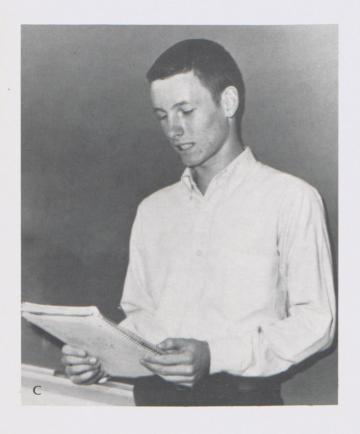

During the year, the Junior Class treasury increased a great deal. Class dues and the ordering of class rings added to the treasury. The class also sponsored two candy sales.

An all out effort produced a lovely memorable Homecoming entitled "Some Enchanted Evening".

Hundreds of new faces entered M.H.S. for the first time in September to form the Class of 1971. Class elections were held in December. Chosen as leaders were John Buker, President; Bob Myers, Vice-President; Judy Keeler, Secretary; and Trish Wallace, Treasurer. The advisors were Mr. David Gross and Mrs. Virginia Imhoff.

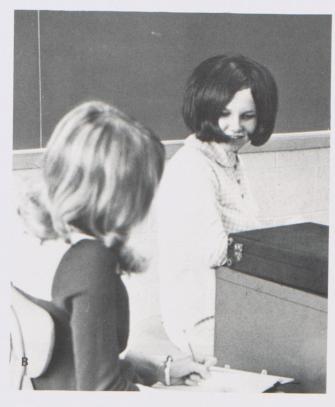

All sophomores were encouraged to come to the Executive Committee meetings held every Tuesday morning. Posting minutes of every meeting in the homeroom kept students informed on all sophomore activities.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF MANSFIELD, OHIO

The First National Bank congratulates the students of Mansfield Senior High on another year of academic, musical, and athletic activities. For those seniors who are planning to further their education, the First National Bank would like to invite you to come in and talk about financing your school expenses.

First National loans over one million dollars yearly, making it one of the largest lenders of money in the state. Any student with good standing in an approved school is eligible to get a loan. The loan will be made directly to you. Payment begins nine months after your schooling is over.

Sound interesting? Come in and see Mr. Douville, the college loan officer.

Richland Trust Is Where the Action Is

Richland Trust Company encourages Senior High Students to think ahead. Whatever you do with your education. Richland Trust suggests that you let them help you plan for the future.

To start with is an Action Saving Account. Save for a college education, a new car, or for a rainy day and get Richland Trust's good interest rate. Or purchase Richland Trust Time certificates earning $5.00 for every $100.00 you buy.

Richland Trust offers a full range of services to aid you with your financial problems. This includes a time saving checking account, low cost auto loans, and mortage loans for home buyers.

Richland Trust is truly an asset to the community—a good neighbor, a place to work and a place to do your banking. Stop at the Action Bank, Richland Trust, 3 North Main Street and eight other locations.

Each year it is the goal of the Manhigan Staff to better the yearbook and to make it a representative of the school. With the help of many unselfish people, the 1969 Manhigan is the best yearbook in the history of Mansfield Senior High.

Thanks go to the advisors of the yearbook, Mr. David Gross and Mr. Earl Parks. Had it not been for these two fine men, the results of the Manhigan would have been far short of prescribed goals.

To the staff of senior editors and junior members, the amount of thanks cannot be measured. It was through many hours of work by them that the Manhigan came alive.

Special notes of thanks go to Tim Rohn and Vivian Bottomley for their assistance as photographer and typist. Also, thanks to the Mansfield News Journal and Smucker's Studio for the aid they gave the yearbook.
